

Psychotherapeutic
Art
Interventions for Navigating Trauma

PAINT

- Are you a school-based mental health provider working with students covered by Medi-Cal?
- Do you want to deepen your knowledge of evidence-based, trauma-informed and relationship-centered practices?
- Do you want to learn about innovative and engaging art-based interventions that have been adapted for Telehealth delivery?

Body contour drawing by Oakland Tech student

TRAINING SERIES START DATE:

Sept. 22, 9AM-12:30PM or Sept. 23, 12:30PM-4PM

Register for either the morning training or the afternoon training.

Follow-up training options:

October 20, 9:00AM-12:30PM or October 21, 12:30PM-4:00PM

November 17, 9:00AM-12:30PM or November 18, 12:30PM-4:00PM

Monthly small group case consults:

Offered January through May; Dates and Times TBD via Doodle poll.

To register please visit:

www.eventbrite.com/e/paint-psychotherapeutic-art-interventions-for-navigating-trauma-tickets-116534035437

Through a generous grant from the Office of the California Surgeon General and the DHCS, LINCOLN is offering this training series free of charge to school-based mental health providers serving students covered by Medi-Cal. CEUs available to LMFTs, LCSWs, LPCCs.

PAINT is designed and overseen by Francine Ostrem, Ph.D., LMFT, LPCC, Expressive Arts Therapy Specialization